GUIDANCE

Parents of ALL students: Mrs. Mueller will be presenting information about preparing for success in high school, preparing for college, and paying for college tonight at 6:00 in the library. We will discuss the A+ program and what it can and can't do, dual credits and which ones your child should take, how to get money for college from Uncle Sam, how to understand the award letter, how to choose a college, etc. Hope to see everyone there!

All students: Apply before April 30 for the Arch City Granite scholarship for $1000 at <https://www.archcitygranite.com/scholarship/>

Ag Majors: Apply for the Trixie Chicks Trick Riders scholarship by Jan 1. This is a local – a Fatima student will get one! Go to www.trxchx.com, go to More and then to Scholarship and fill out the form!

Seniors whose parents get their electric through Three Rivers and who plan to attend a public, private, or junior college: Apply for the Gilbert G. Hilkemeyer Scholarship for $2000. Mueller has the form, or you can access it at www.threeriverselectric.com. Deadline is March 30.

Seniors: Keep track of every scholarship you apply for and the amount they are worth. You will need this for the Schwartz Scholarship!

Sophomores: On Friday Mr. Plume from Nichols Career Center will be explaining their programs and offerings. Sophomores A-k will need to report to 7th hour for attendance and then quickly report to the library for the presentation. Then sophomores L-Z will be called in around 2:00 for their presentation, which will last until about 2:30.
