Merry Christmas

KRCG Weather Forecast:

WEDNESDAY: Sunshine is back! We'll see a day full of sunshine with winds out of the southwest. Morning wind chills will be in the low 20s in the morning, but temperatures will rise into the mid 40s by the afternoon.

EXTENDED FORECAST: Clouds return late Wednesday night and we'll see a chance for snow on Thursday morning. Thursday looks to start as a rain/snow mix before changing to all snow. Timing for this system could impact the morning commute Thursday, with a dusting to half an inch for potential snow totals. Another chance for flurries returns Saturday. Saturday's snow looks to impact the Lake of the Ozarks and the I-44 corridor more. Southwest and South Central MO could see several inches of snow from this system.

-Meteorologist Elyse Smith
